Dr. H. C. Burleigh,
Bath, Ontario,
Canada.

My dear Dr. Burleigh.

My apologies for the delay in making response to yours of July 15th. During July and August up to now, have had a succession of visitors. My dau and husband, back from Germany, the family of a cousin from Venezuela-returning to the U.S. And a nephew from Calif. Hence no time to myself.

I will take up the Hess, Fox and Empie families in separate letters.
HESS.

So far as I have been able to determine, the Hess family of the Mohawk Valley descends from one Johannes Hess who was in the Palatine immigration to New York in 1710. As you know these Germans were all settled on the Livingston Estate on the Hudson in 1710 in the tar camps.

They remained there until 1712, when a considerable contingent moved to Schoharie and squatted and developed the land, built towns and hoped to make that their permanent home. But politicians secured a Patent to the land and the Germans had to move. Some went to the Mohawk Valley - Stone Arabia and Herkimer and some floated down the Susquehanna River to the vicinity of Harrisburg Pa and settled there.

Some remained in Schoharie. At the departure of a contingent in 1712 for Schoharie, some remained and settled on the land they had improved. Among these latter was Nicholas Hess. The relationship of Nicholas and Johannes Hess if any is unknown. Nicholas remained in what is now Columbia County and I have never picked up any of his descendants. I doubt if any of them moved to the Mohawk Valley.

Hence the Hess family of the Mohawk Valley traces back to Johannes Hess as their Hess ancestor.

Johannes Hess, a blacksmith, born 1692 at Bleichenbach in the Dutchy of Hanau, married Aug 29, 1711 at West Camp, N.Y., Anna Catherina Curring (also spelled Korsing and Corsing) dau of Rudolph Curring and Otillia---.

In 1723 Johannes Hess secured a lot in the Burnetsfield Patent at Herkimer, N.Y., and apparently moved there at that time. He had the following children;

Fanniche,	born at West Camp,	May 29, 1712.
Anna Eva,	born	Sep 24, 1713.
Anna Maria,	born	Apl 19, 1715.
Catherina,	born	Mar 25, 1717.
Augustinus,	born	Dec 21, 1718. died Jul 15, 1782.
Johannes,	born	May 5, 1721. died 1767.
Johannes Frederick,	born	Sep 5, 1722.
Anna Dorothea,	born	Mar 25, 1724.
Hendrick,	born	Feb 2, 1730, died Feb 25, 1810
Dedrich	born	1739

I have the descendants (male) of practically all the branches of the above down to and beyond the Revolution, save that of Johann Frederick Hess. He simply fades out of the records. I have it from Hess descendants well versed in the family history that he married Elizabeth Young,

In 1745 Johann Frederick Hess and Elizabeth Young acted as sponsors at the baptism of Johannes, son of his brother Johannes Hess and his wife Anna Margretha Young.

5

The baptismal record from the custom of the time, indicates that both Johann Frederick Hess and Elizabeth Young were unmarried at the time. If man and wife, the record would have read Johann Frederich Hess and Elizabeth.

Just who this Elizabeth Young was, parentage, I do not know. I have always suspected that she was a sister to the Anna Margretha Young born as per Hess authorities Nov 9, 1720 married Nov 10, 1743 Johannes Hess brother of Johann Frederick Hess. I descend from the Johannes Hess, Anna Margretha Young line.

I suspect these two girls were daughters of either Hendrick, or of Teobald Young who settled somewhat south of Herkimer.

The name Jacob and Andrew were prevalent in the Young Family and I am of the opinion that Jacob and Andrew Hess descend from Johann Frederick Hess and Elizabeth Young. I never have come across a record of the marriage of Johann Frederick Hess and Elizabeth Young nor in fact any record of them save the baptismal record cited above. I am of the opinion that they moved away from Herkimer. I have found none of the descendants of Johannes Hess and Anna Catherina Curring, who were loyalists, hence I believe the two were descendants of Johann Frederick Hess and Elizabeth Young. How the latter could disappear from church and property records puzzles me. None of the Hess genealogists has ever commented on it to my knowledge.

I have a great deal of the Hess Genealogy-descendants of the brothers of Johann Frederick Hess, but nowhere can I fit in a Jacob and an Andrew. Andrew was not a Hess name. It was a Young name.

Shall be glad to furnish further Hess information that you may desire, and shall be grateful in return for any you may care to forward.

Will take up Fox and Empie in subsequent letters.

Very truly,

Oliver Walter Bell

P.S.

I now reside at 437½ Queen Anne Court,
